FCSS Neighbourhood Block Party Program

CONTACT: Lisa Brett Ph: 780-865-2670
FCSS Community Connections Coordinator
ADDRESS: 821 Switzer Drive, Hinton, AB T7V 1V1
WEBSITE: www.hinton.ca
HOURS: Monday to Friday, 8:00 am - 4:00 pm
SERVICE: A Neighbourhood Block Party (NBP) creates an opportunity for geographic neighbours (street, cul-de-sac, apartment building, etc.) to meet each other in a social environment and get to know one another better. Neighbours who know one another tend to look out for each other and are aware of who belongs in the neighbourhood. This helps develop safer and more caring neighbourhoods. To keep the NBP interactive, we recommend keeping the maximum number of households/businesses invited to 25. Up to a $200 (maximum) rebate per NBP (approved items include, but not limited to, food, non-alcoholic beverages, and entertainment). Get the Registration & Rebate Package and Toolkit online at www.hinton.ca.

We listen. We connect.

The Mental Health Continuum Model

We all have mental health. By recognizing when we are experiencing the physical or emotional effects of stress, we can take steps to return to a healthy and regulated state of mental wellbeing. Check-in with yourself often and take steps when you are not okay.

HEALTHY

"I got this!"

- Normal changes in mood
- You take things in stride
- You can laugh at funny things
- You are able to do the things you usually do in a day
- You are physically active and connecting with people in some way
- You have confidence in yourself and in those around you
- Drinking alcohol or consuming cannabis in moderation, or not at all

- Keep doing what you are doing.
- Stay focused on the positive things in your life.
- Understand how you react to stress
- Call or text 211 to understand resources before they are needed

REACTING

"Something isn't right."

- Nervousness, irritability
- Sadness, overwhelmed
- Displaced sarcasm
- Procrastination
- Forgetfulness
- Trouble sleeping
- Low energy
- Muscle tension, headaches
- Dismissing responsibilities
- Activities and relationships you have enjoyed in the past seem less interesting
- Drinking or consuming cannabis regularly or in binges to manage stress

- Recognize your limits
- Remember it's ok to not feel ok, reach out
- Take breaks often
- Seek support by talking to someone you trust
- Call or text 211
- Text "CONNECT" to 686868

INJURED

"I can't keep up."

- Anxiety, anger
- Ongoing sadness, crying, hopelessness
- Negative attitude
- Difficulty concentrating
- Trouble making decisions
- Decreased performance at work or school
- Regularly missing appointments
- Not sleeping well
- Avoiding conversations and interactions with friends or family
- Increased use of alcohol or other substances – hard to control

- Talk to your doctor
- Keep connected with people you know
- Talk to someone you trust, ask for help
- Call the Rural Distress Line 1-800-232-7288
- Text "CONNECT" to 686868

ILL

"I can't survive this."

- Excessive anxiety
- Panic attacks
- Easily angered
- Depressed mood/numb
- Cannot concentrate
- Cannot make decisions
- Cannot sleep/exhausted
- Continually feeling tired or ill with no known reason
- Withdrawing from contact with friends and family
- Suicidal thoughts or intent to harm yourself
- Hearing or seeing things not there
- Alcohol or other addictions

- If you are in immediate harm Call 911
- Talk to your doctor
- Call the Rural Distress Line 1-800-232-7288
