

Municipal bylaws are passed and amended quite regularly. According to the Municipal Government Act, some bylaws require a public hearing process and others do not. Amending the Land Use Bylaw (LUB) (i.e. rezoning), an Area Structure Plan (ASP) or Municipal Development Plan (MDP) requires a public hearing and the process is shown below.

